THE 1986 WHITE COLUMNS YEARBOOK STAFF

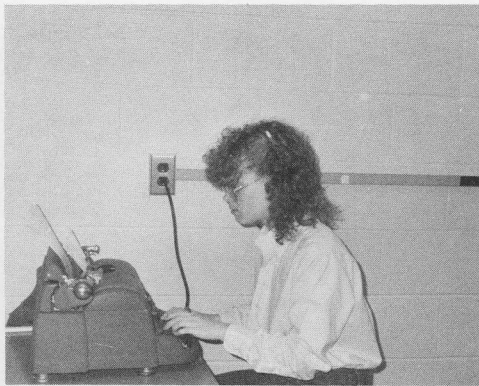

Ms. Bobbie Wolfe

Lisa Bott

Tonia Saunders

Sarah Underwood

Theresa Shifflett

To readers,

I am the editor of the 1985-1986 White Columns Yearbook. I love working on yearbook although it means a lot of work. I used to think that working with yearbook was easy as a pie, but to my surprise, it was not that easy!

While I was learning the ropes, related to the yearbook, I was, most of the times, frustrated because one needs to know where to start. It was hard to decide which pictures should be included in the yearbook. But as time passed, I have acquired some experiences, and now I know everything. I hope you will enjoy reading this 1986 yearbook.

Also I feel that you should know about my staff who are Ms. Bobbie Wolfe, Teresa Shifflett, Sarah Underwood and Tonia Saunders. They worked so hard. We all had done well. We were full of eagerness to work together.

I wish I could work forever on the yearbook for our school.

OK — ready for some funny stories about the staff?

Sarah should be the judge of Mr. America because she spent time asking who was the cutest guy from looking at the pictures. Her typing skills should be improved greatly.

Teresa would make a good singer because she always yelled or sang (I could not tell the difference between yelling and singing) in the darkroom. She would make a good film developer.

Tonia, famous for her glasses covered with dust, took time to wash her glasses before working on copy sheet. Her math skills should improve some as she had to count the numbers daily.

Ms. Bobbie Wolfe would make a good president of Russia as she enjoyed giving us orders; do that, do it now! on and on.

All in all, I really enjoyed working with my staff.

Sincerely,
Lisa J. Bott, editor
