CELEBRATING OUR 150TH YEAR

1989 WHITE COLUMNS

OLD MEMORIES OF VSDB

This dairy barn was located near the maintenance building in 1915.

The swimming pool was in the Stewart Building in the early 50's.

OLD MEMORIES OF VSDB

This picture was taken in 1915 in front of Main Hall.

Boys working with "hand-set type" in the print shop. The "hand-set type" method of printing is obsolete in today's print shop.

OLD MEMORIES OF VSDB

The print shop was located behind Main Hall before it was moved to Strader Hall. This picture was taken about 1968.

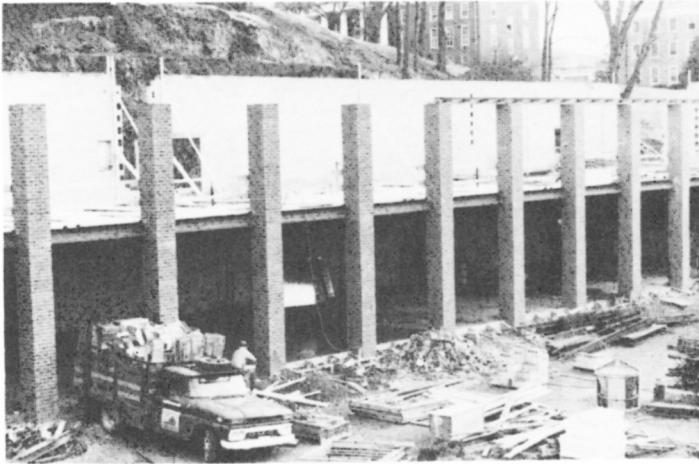

This tree was planted by the Senior Class of 1970.

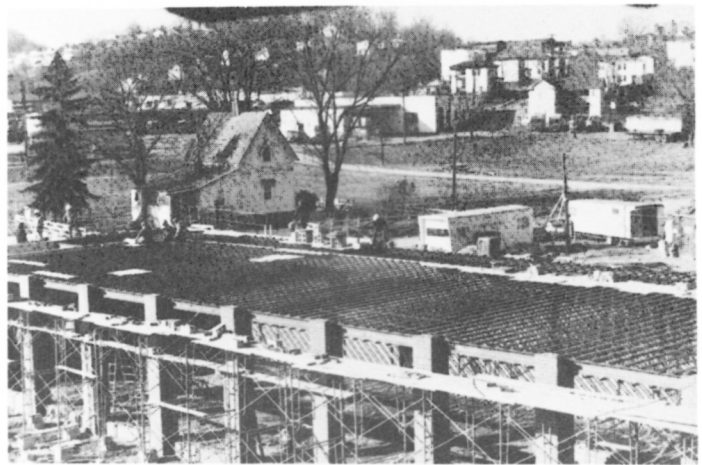

The tree to the right was planted by Matthew Searls, a member of the Senior Class of 1970.

OLD MEMORIES OF VSDB

Strader Hall was erected in 1972 in memory of Mr. Ludwell Strader, who was a member of the Board of Visitors from 1962-1967.

Strader Hall being constructed. Notice the home behind the construction. Mr. Charlie Thorne, who worked in the maintenance Department, grew the food in the garden that surrounded his house. The food was then used to feed the students here at VSDB. Later the house was torn down.
